ABOUT ECSC

The Eastern Connecticut Symphony Chorus is an energetic group of auditioned volunteer singers who range in age from high school students to octogenarians, and currently boasts 87 members! The Chorus rehearses weekly on Wednesday evenings from 7pm - 9pm (unless otherwise noted) from September through April, in Leamy Hall on the Coast Guard Academy campus in New London. The Chorus performs a minimum of two concerts annually. Concert dates for the 2012/2013 season are listed below.

AUDITIONS

Auditions for the 2013 Spring semester will be held on January 23rd, 2013. Those wishing to audition should prepare a song of their choice, excluding show tunes. Examples of acceptable pieces are hymns, arias, or selections from other classical works. Interested singers should contact ECSC President Sheri Pellerin at ecscpresident@gmail.com to reserve an audition time. Those auditioning will be notified of the results of their audition prior to the first rehearsal in the fall. To visit the Chorus website click here.

DUES - $75/year. Other costs include the musical scores and sheet music for each concert, and concert attire (women wear a 2-pc dress available for purchase through Stage Accents; men wear either a tuxedo or black suit, white shirt and black bow tie).

OUR CONCERTS

The ECSC Annual Holiday Concert will be held on Friday, December 21st at 8:00pm at Harkness Chapel on the Connecticut College campus. The concert program includes Vivaldi's Gloria, Maurten Lauridsen's Lux Aeterna, other seasonal favorites, and of course the traditional Carol Sing-Along with our audience!

On April 20, 2013 at 8:00pm at the Garde Arts Center, the ECSC joins the ECSO to perform A Night at the Opera. Please contact the ECSO office for more information.
